

"POP" GEERS, NOTED HORSEMAN IS KILLED

DIES IN HARNESS FOLLOWING SPILL WHEN MARE FALLS

Grand Old Man of Trotting Turf Meets His End at Age of 73 on Track at Wheeling, West Virginia—Crowd Who Assembled for "Geers Day" are Witnesses to Accident

WHEELING, W. VA., Sept. 3.—Edward F., ("Pop") Geers of Memphis, Tenn., dean of American harness drivers and known for many years as the "grand old man of the trotting turf," died "in the harness" today.

The veteran horseman was fatally injured when his mare, Miladi Guy stumbled and fell during the first harness race at the West Virginia fair.

Dislodged from the overturned sulky, Geers was thrown more than 15 feet ahead of the horse and suffered injuries which caused his death three hours later in the Ohio Valley hospital. Death was attributed to shock and internal injuries.

Today had been set aside as "Geers Day" at the state fair and a great crowd had turned out to honor the premier reinsman who for fifty years had been making history on the American trotting turf. The first heat of the 2:14 trot ended by Geers taking third place. In the next heat, while he was attempting to pass Santa The Great which was leading the field, Miladi Guy was seen to stumble.

LA FOLLETTE MAN IS GIVEN HEAVY WISCONSIN VOTE

Governor J. J. Blaine Has Heavy Plurality
in Primary

MILWAUKEE, Wis. Sept. 3. (AP)—Governor J. J. Blaine, backed with the endorsement of Senator Robert M. La Follette, not only obtained a plurality over his nearest competitor, Arthur R. Hirst, of between 65,000 and 70,000 votes but rolled up a majority of between 30,000 and 35,000 votes over both his opponents in yesterday's primary for the Republican gubernatorial nomination.

With only a few scattered precincts missing the governor had a plurality over Hirst of 66,811 and a majority over both Hirst and Lieutenant Governor George F. Comings of 32,658. The vote in 2,507 precincts out of 2,678 in the state showed Blaine 212,295; Hirst 149,487; Comings 34,143.

Supporters of Senator La Follette carried off all honors, except out. Secretary of State Zimmerman was endorsed by La Follette romped away with the nomination to succeed himself and the other majority primary contest also went to a La Follette man when Solomon Levitan state treasurer was nominated for the office he now occupies.

Ten of the present members of the Wisconsin delegation in congress, all supporters of Senator La Follette were renominated.

The lone exception was in the fifth Milwaukee district which is now represented by Victor Berger Socialist. Here Ernest Bruncken who had declared for the senior Wisconsin Senator went down to defeat before E. Braun.

TWO ROBBERIES OF BANKS OCCUR NEAR SAME HOUR

Bandits Make Haul at Both Columbia and Springfield

COLUMBIA, Ill., Sept. 3.—The seventh successful bank robbery in this section of southern Illinois within the last five weeks was made here shortly before noon today when six robbers entered the First National Bank and escaped in a stolen automobile with $12,637 in currency.

The bandits adopted a new manner of escape when they left their automobile at East Carondelet, taking a motor boat in which they headed north on the Mississippi river.

East St. Louis, Ill., and St. Louis police when informed of the robbery rushed to bridges with riot guns, but arrived too late.

The bandits landed on the Illinois river at the foot of Ferry street and escaped.

The robbers entered the bank with drawn revolvers and caused Assistant Cashiers E. H. Brucker and Robert Kunz, and two girl employees to hold up their hands. Brucker was ordered to open the safe and the money was taken from the safe and cash drawers.

The robbery was executed so quickly and quietly that a policeman a half block away as well as other citizens were unaware of it.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Sept. 3.—Police and deputy sheriffs of every county south of Sangamon in Illinois are hunting tonight for six bandits who this afternoon held up the Jefferson State Bank in this city, locked one of the officers and employees in a vault and escaped with $20,000 of the bank's funds.

Immediately following the robbery the bandits were traced to an oil road leading out of Springfield to St. Louis. Springfield police lost the trail a short distance from this city and have notified authorities in every county south of this city. St. Louis police also have been asked to be on the lookout.

The robbery was the most daring ever perpetrated in Springfield. The Jefferson State Bank is a community institution near the southern limits of the city.

Six men drove up to the bank at 1 p. m. Four of them entered the bank and two remained in the car. The leader commanded Warren E. Lewis, president to throw up his hands, and after taking a valuable diamond ring from one of his fingers commanded him to move into the vault. Lewis hesitated and was struck over the head. He was pushed into the vault and other employees were put in there with him. The robbers then ransacked the bank and carried the money out in two bags. They boarded their automobile and sped away, south from the city.

A woman who passed the bank just as the robbers were leaving told police she saw only three men. There was a tall slim one, she said, and a short heavy set man. One of them carried two sacks of money, one in each hand, and one followed behind.

She said their automobile was drawn up in the alley at the side of the bank, and was facing the street.

The board maintained that the transportation act empowered it to require testimony.

Chicago Man Chosen As Legion Commander

CHAMPAIGN, Ill., Sept. 3.—Howard Savage of Chicago was elected commander of the Illinois department, American Legion, on the first ballot today when his only opponent, Harry Newby, withdrew during the roll call.

Rabbi Mayer Lipman of Springfield, was elected chaplain; Thomas E. Harwood, Bloomington, senior vice-commander and Albert Carter Zeigler, Junior vice-commander.

Rabbi Lipman was nominated by the Rev. Arthur F. Ewert a Presbyterian minister of Chicago, and his nomination seconded by Father Joseph Loneran, Roman Catholic priest of Durand, Ill. The chaplain's election was by acclamation.

Harwood and Carter were unopposed.

After his election Chaplain Lipman was called to the platform by Commander Bullington. As Rabbi Mayer Lipman spoke the final words of his benediction, Commander Bullington who was convalescent from a recent operation collapsed. He was removed to a hospital where it was reported his condition was not serious.

In his speech of acceptance Commander Savage pledged himself to conduct the affairs of the legion with economy; to keep the and to increase the membership and to make the legion stronger in all sections of the state.

Earlier in the session Commander Bullington was introduced to the convention as a potential candidate for national commander in a resolution which was passed unanimously.

Delegates to the national convention at St. Paul were instructed to push his candidacy and to place the name of Father Loneran in nomination as national chaplain. The latter move was advocated by the retiring department chaplain, Rev. Ewert.

Navy Day, October 24, was endorsed in a resolution which urged the congress to spare no pains in furnishing the country with an adequate navy.

Formation of a salon of the "8 and 40" women's branch of the legion, the legion fun making organization was one of the most important accomplishments of the convention of the American Legion auxiliary which also closed its convention today.

The salon is the state unit of the "8 and 40."

Mrs. George Kellogg of Chicago was made chairman.

Mrs. William A. Mann, Kankakee was elected first vice-president and Miss Ruby Flora treasurer in the only election in which there were contests.

Heywood of Berwyn, was elected president yesterday and Mrs. Lin H. Griffith, Danville, chaplain.

Call is Issued by Federation of Labor Non-Partisans

WASHINGTON, Sept. 3. (AP)—Trade union organizations throughout the country were called upon today by the American Federation of Labor's national non-partisan political campaign committee to do their utmost for the success of the LaFollette-Wheeler ticket.

"A call to action," signed by Samuel Gompers, Frank Morrison, James O'Connell, Thomas A. Rickert, Matthew Woll and Martin F. Ryan the six members of the committee appealed for contributions of money and the immediate formation of local campaign organizations.

"The American Federation of Labor," said the appeal, "purposes to engage in this campaign with full resources. Political campaigns cannot be conducted without the expenditure of money and effort. For that reason we call upon trade unions and trade unionists, friends and sympathizers and forward looking men and women generally throughout the Republic to contribute insofar as possible to the work of the committee."

"Our contributions must come from the rank and file. Our battle is the battle of the people and it must be financed by the people. We have neither the desire nor the opportunity to avail ourselves of the large contributions of the vested interests. We are in opposition to those interests, fighting them for the freedom of the people and for justice to the people in every respect."

IS VISITING CHICAGO

Chicago, Sept. 3.—John W. Davis, Democratic presidential nominee spending his second day in Chicago, conferred today with additional party leaders from middlewestern states, made tentative arrangements for Missouri addresses and partially completed his agricultural address to be delivered Saturday at Omaha.

Mr. and Mrs. Billy Williams stopped in the city Wednesday for a visit with Dr. and Mrs. W. O. Watt, being enroute to their home in Missouri.

AIRMEN ARRIVE AT PICTOU N. S. IN GOOD SHAPE

Wade and Ogden,
With Boston II, Join
for Rest of Trip

PICTOU, Nova Scotia, Sept. 3.—(AP)—Lieutenant Smith and Lieutenant Nelson, the American round the world fliers with their assistants, Lieutenant Leslie T. Arnold and Lieutenant John Harding, Jr., taxied into Pictou Harbor at 4:38 o'clock, Eastern Standard time, this afternoon after a flight from Hawkes Bay, New Zealand. They made the journey in six hours and 26 minutes.

The successful negotiation of the flight across the water from New Zealand to Pictou leaves the American aviators with only one other hop over the sea—a flight from here to Boston. It is expected they will make this tomorrow with a stop for re-fueling at St. Johns, N. B.

When Smith and Nelson leave here they again will have as companions Lieutenant Leigh Wade and Lieutenant H. H. Ogden who were forced out of the flight last month, when their plane was wrecked while being hoisted aboard the cruiser Richmond after it had been forced down on the jump from the Orkney Islands to Iceland. In a new plane Wade and Ogden will continue the flight until its completion. A new propeller, which is to replace the one unsuitable will be placed on the Boston II, Wade's machine tomorrow.

The jump from Hawkes Bay today was without incident beyond the breaking of the spreader bar on Lieutenant Smith's machine. This did not effect the flying qualities of the plane. During the trip the aviators encountered no fog, a dreaded visitation in New Zealand waters, and, except, when they met occasional rain squalls, they found exceptionally good visibility.

BOSTON, Sept. 3.—With the world fliers only a few miles from home, preparations for their probable landing here Friday were completed today. Major General Mason M. Patrick, chief of the army air service and the originator of the world flight idea, came by air from New York with officers in 14 other planes.

They will fly up the coast to escort the world airmen here. Officials of the nation, the state and the city arranged a program of welcome that will be as simple as possible in keeping with the fliers' wishes.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 3. (AP)—President Coolidge put the finishing touches today on his program for agriculture relief which he expects to accomplish thru an investigation by a commission he will appoint soon, and then devoted some time to writing the speech he will deliver in Baltimore Saturday at the dedication of the LaFayette Statue. In announcing his agriculture commission it is expected the president will outline definitely his homes for farmers and the nature of a proposed legislative program to be adopted as a result of the investigation. He has indicated he considers sufficient emergency laws already enacted and will expect future legislation to deal with a permanent agriculture program.

Likewise it is expected Mr. Coolidge will define at more length his views on foreign relations in his address Saturday.

WITNESSES STATE SHERIFF GALLIGAN STARTED TROUBLE

Say Either Galligan or Ora Thomas Fired
First Shots—Coroner's Inquest Peaceful in Presence of Soldiers—Dead Klansman is Buried With Full Ceremony of The Klan

HERRIN, Ill., Sept. 3. (AP)—The Ku Klux Klan today buried the last of its dead, slain in the battle fought on one of Herrin's streets Saturday, while Coroner William McGown and his jury inquired into the causes of the fight and sought to fix responsibility. The evidence laid before the jury was more or less conflicting and barring one witness, Mrs. Chester Reid, widow of one of the men killed, the testimony plainly was for the side of the Klan. The other side ignored the inquiry, Sheriff George Galligan saying he would not testify at the inquest as "it didn't mean anything" but that he would wait for the convening of the grand jury at Marion, September 22.

His statement also was taken as an indication that none of his deputies would appear.

The jury, after waiting most of the afternoon for witnesses, that didn't appear, adjourned until 9 o'clock tomorrow morning. Charles Willard was the klansman buried today. Impressive ceremonies were held for him and he was interred with all honors the Ku Klux Klan could bestow on one of their own.

Four protestant ministers officiated at the services held at the First Methodist church at Herrin. The edifice was packed with people, perhaps a thousand, while several hundred unable to get in remained on the outside.

Klan Not Masked
Captain Harold M. Bigelow, commander of the detachment of national guardsmen here, cautioned the klansmen against a demonstration and as a result previous plans to have the klansmen appear robed in their regalia were abandoned.

At the city cemetery however, about 20 klansmen donned their robes, but not their masks, while Rev. P. R. Giotto, pastor of the Methodist church also garbed in klans robes, conducted the klans ceremony.

Although nearly 150 automobiles profusely decorated with American flags were in the procession from the church to the cemetery and approximately 1,000 people pressed around the newly dug grave the services were without disorder.

Statements by several witnesses that State's Attorney Delos Duty and Herrin's city judge, E. N. Bowen, took part in the shooting were vigorously denied by Mr. Duty.

Many people here had predicted that today would bring a fresh outbreak when the opposing forces would meet at the coroner's inquest. But, they did not meet, give the military credit, for it is a certainty that the soldiers do command respect from both sides and the appearance of khaki clad men is welcomed by both factions. This was borne out at the city hall today where the coroner's inquest was being held. Not more than 50 spectators occupied benches in the court room and they, a local police officer said, just didn't have any place else to go. Everyone else gave the place a wide berth.

A guard outside the door searched every person that entered the room. Inside were a dozen or more soldiers each with a loaded rifle and fixed bayonets. A sergeant in back of the judge's bench stood with a number of hand grenades within each reach. Behind a long table where the coroner, his jury and newspapermen sat was a sentry holding a rifle at port arms.

Mrs. Reid's Story
Mrs. Reid was the first witness and from her testimony it first appeared her husband was the first man killed.

Houston Murphy, an employee of the Smith garage, and Alvin Townsend testified that Smith did not appear on the scene until after the trouble was over.

Roscoe Wright, a coal miner living in Herrin, said he lived near the Smith garage and when he heard shooting Saturday he locked the doors of his home at once while he and his wife went upstairs where they remained until it was over.

Denham Testifies
Charles Denham, an acknowledged klansman, testified he was in the midst of the entire affair and the attack seemed to be centered on his car. Three of the men killed were passengers in Denham's car. He told the jury that he was going home and that on the way he met these three men, Charles Willard, Green Dunne and Dewey Newbold along with others who were with them.

Again he asserted that there was no real difference between the political positions taken by John W. Davis, the Democratic presidential nominee and President Coolidge as the representative of the Republican party.

WANTS CANCELLATION OF DOHNEY LEASE
Los Angeles, Cal. Sept. 3.—Cancellation of another Dohney lease in the Elk Hills naval reserve in Kern county is sought in a suit in federal court here today on behalf of the United States government against the Pan-American Petroleum company. The plaintiff asks that a lease on Sections 1 and 2 in the naval reserve be declared null and void on the ground that it was illegally and corruptly obtained.

Chicago papers have been giving praise to the administration of Mayor Dever for making the radio on pavement corners larger and thus helping out materially with traffic conditions. It was some years ago when Henry J.
Rogers was mayor of Jacksonville that this very thing was done in this city, and a very decided betterment in traffic conditions resulted.

Also no plans have yet been matured for the observance of Defense Day in Jacksonville. It is understood that something will be done in line with the suggestion of President Coolidge.
There has been favorable and patriotic response from all parts of the nation and it would be a regrettable thing for Jack-

The Nickel Plate consolidation is one of the largest railroad mergers recently made. The announcement seems to be considered by the public as an advantageous thing for the railroads and for the public they serve. The consolidation will mean less operation costs and greater efficiency in many ways. The matter is viewed as indicative of the change in public sentiment toward the railroads for the time was, not so very long ago, when any such merger would have been considered as against the public good.

A Jacksonville legionnaire,
Homer Bradney, has been elected to the chief office of the Forty and Eight, an auxiliary of the American Legion. This is an honor not only for the officer but for the local vulture and the city.
It is said that many questions were asked about Mr. Bradney before delegates rallied to his support, questions with answers which served to show that he had no political racial or religious bias, that he could take the office fully unhampered in his views. At the convention of the American Legion held at the same time the candidate elected to the office of chaplain was a Jewish rabbi, nominated by a Presbyterian minister with the motion seconded by a Catholic priest.

These facts are noted to show
the spirit of the American Legion, which purposes to be a non-political, non-sectarian organization. In the maintenance of these principles lies its greatest strength.

one can be happy who lacks an objective. Harold Bell Wright said he would have died out there in Tucson, Arizona, eight or ten years ago when he was ill with tuberculosis, if it had not been necessary for him to work to provide for his family.

He had promised his publishers
a book, and his illness had prevented him from going forward with it. "I kept my book where I could look at it and handle it," said Mr. Wright, "because I dared not put it away. I realized that my work alone could save me. Most people, I think, die because they have no real purpose in living.
Had it not been for this book which I felt I must write in order to provide for those dependent upon me, I should certainly have given up."

People often complain because they are compelled to do work which they do not like. That work may be their greatest blessing. It is when we are forced to do things that are hard that we develop strength. A life of too much ease is a life of great unhappiness. The miserable person has no time to be miserable.—Tom Dreier in Forbes

THE COMMUNITY MUST STAND BY THE BAND

There can be no question that this community now possesses one of the best bands in its history.
The Jacksonville Community band has demonstrated its excellence
many times during the present season, and citizens have been quick to note the progress the boys are making.

This band belongs to Jacksonville and shouldn't be made one of its greatest advertising features, as well as being maintained for the pleasure of its citizens, and the citizens of all Morgan county.

There are many ways in which the community can help the band,
and one of the most important lies in making it possible for the organization to play in cities and towns within a wide radius of Jacksonville.

It is now difficult for the band members to go on these trips, as all of them hold positions here.
Employers can co-operate with the community in maintaining a band by doing their best to allow the men leave of absence when the band must play abroad.

THE DEATH OF A
TRUE SPORTSMAN

The sporting world lost one of its most noted characters yesterday in the death of "Pop" Geers, the most famous driver on the American turf. This man has piloted more race horses to victory during his more than fifty years of driving than any other turfdriver.

But it is not the number of victories or world records to Pop's credit that should be heralded abroad now that he has died in his chosen calling. It is rather the fact that he was always a true sportsman. Never was he known to use unfair means to win a race, and seldom did he complain of the dishonest acts of competing drivers. The old man played the game to the last, and died as he had lived, a true sportsman.

It folks would take a lesson from "Pop" Geers and play the game of life as sincerely and as squarely as he drove in his races,
there would be little doubt of results at the finish when all must pass under the wire that separates the here from the hereafter.

"Pop" Geers passed under the final wire a winner. His life was as much of a success as that of any statesman or noted character in other walks of life. Men are judged not by what they do in life, but by how they do it and by what they are.

WHITE HALL WITHOUT
BOND INDEBTEDNESS

Tax Levy Ordinance Shows City Is Without Bond or Bond Interest Indebtedness — Other White Hall News.

The tax levy ordinance passed at the September session of the city council Tuesday discloses that the city of White Hall is without bond or bond interest indebtedness entirely. The levy calls for a total of $15,290.82, which is approximately $2,000 less than last year and lower than for many previous years. This is because not a single item is carried for bond or bond interest.
The new traffic ordinance, entitled Ordinance No. 117, was passed, and it will become effective on publication, it being declared as a public emergency. In the purchase of a new Fordson tractor was ordered for operating the road machinery at a cost of $525, and three additional are lights were ordered for West Bridgeport, Hancock and East Carville streets. Surveys and ordinances were ordered for three sidewalk lights. The council will not consider larger measures until the return of Mayor H.
W. Rodhouse from Canada.

The report from Springfield of the death of Benjamin Rodhouse is of special interest at White Hall, where he has been located much of the time since acquiring the ranch six miles southwest of White Hall, where he maintained mail facilities, and always expressed a kindly word for White Hall along with admiration for certain residence locations that he hoped to sometime acquire. The accident that led to his death in a Springfield hospital was not regarded as at all serious, and this caused news of his passing to be received with keener regret.

Arthur Wilkinson, son of Harry Wilkinson of Atterton, underwent an operation in Walton hos-

Monday.

The present week will probably witness the completion of the work of providing new air circuits, additions and extensions of the local electric system. The work has been in progress for a month or more under the direction of Lee Henderson of Beardstown and a crew of seven men.
The present job has nothing to do with the proposed downtown illuminating system, which awaits disposition of the paving proposition and the paving proposition awaits the state hard road construction from the north, while the state hard road awaits the pleasure of the railroads with reference to the two subways. As soon as these and possibly other obstacles are removed, the downtown lighting scheme will undergo change pretty much along the lines proposed by the Central Illinois Public Service Co. in conjunction with the Chamber of Commerce. The city's new traffic regulations were adopted by the city council at the September session Tuesday night, and they will become enforceable following proper publication.

ately southeast of White Hall, and will be under the direction of E.
M. Phillips, county farm adviser.
There will be a 15-mile unit through the central portion of the served at the farm of Wm. Ford, near Greenfield. The demon-

DEAF BAND AT THE STATE FAIR

Organization From State School Will Be Heard Daily During Illinois Exhibit.

In 1922, O. C. Smith, managing officer of the Illinois School for the Deaf, visited many of the schools for the deaf in the eastern part of the United States. He became interested in the use of musical instruments in the education of the deaf as found in various schools and particularly interested in the band at the Fanwood school at New York City. Upon investigation, he found that there were only two deaf bands in the United States, one for that matter, in the above mentioned school and the other in the Tennessee School for the Deaf. The band in the Tennessee State school was organized by Fred

G. Fancher. Negotiations were begun immediately to secure the services of Mr. Fancher, who is a deaf man and a graduate of the Fanwood school, to organize such a band in the Illinois school. Mr. Fancher was employed and began his work in September, 1923.

The first call for candidates to the new band in the fall of 1923 was answered by a very large number of eager boys, mostly totally deaf. Mr. Fancher, the new bandmaster, had to pick out the most likely looking ones and leave the others out for the first try-out. Hands and feet were employed for beating time to get rhythm. All this was mastered to an astonishing degree in a few hours. All that was needed to go on with the musical education of these eager pupils was the producing of certain musical instruments, which were ordered at once. Pending the arrival of the instruments, old chair-stands were used as drum-sticks and old benches served as drums. Progress was rapid, in fact, so rapid that the boys began to be highly proficient as drummers, keeping accurate time that pleased the listening visitors.

At last the new six snare drums and one large bass drum arrived during the Christmas holidays. The day the drums were taken up by the would-be musicians, everybody remarked how well the drum music was played. Unison manifested itself in their rendition of drum music. Of course, the next thing to do was to get band-leaders. It was with some difficulty that the authorities in Springfield could be convinced that deaf pupils could make a success of a band, and it was not until about the fifteenth of February, 1924, that instruments were secured.

The drums, however, had been in use at the school since December, 1923. In a little while "America," "Auld Lang Syne," "Yankee Doodle" and a few other simple tunes were heard, and visitors and neighbors wondered how such music could be played at such a school, where all the children were bereft of hearing. They had to believe the musical abilities of those young deaf musicians on beholding them with their own eyes and hearing them with their own ears.

Explanations were always asked for, and Mr. Fancher simply said: "Their usually keen sense of vibration depending on bass-drum for foundation of their time is their second music. Daily practice is indispensable to their high quality of music." "Furthermore," says Mr. Fancher, "All the deaf musicians always show themselves well capable of playing music on brass horns after first going through a course of drum-playing."

By the first of June, their musical repertoire was amazingly replete with all kinds of music, due to arduous daily practice. The latest and most difficult piece of music for these deaf musicians to be able to play was "The National Emblem."

Their first appearances have been extended as far as East St. Louis and Peoria, Ill., and their next fall public appearance is called for at Chicago as guests of the Chamber of Commerce. They have been engaged to give music at the State Fair at Springfield, Ill.

One of the chief features of the daily routine at the Illinois School for the Deaf is: The Flag Salute, Retreat Drill participated in by the Illinois School for the Deaf, five military companies of boys and three companies of girls. This ceremony, witnessed by people from outside on the front lawn, always lined up by cars.

the way and as they lived in his neighborhood, he invited them to ride home with him.

"We turned down on Monroe street," he testified, "and as we drew near to the Smith garage I noticed eight or ten men standing in the doorway. I recognized Ora Thomas and George Galligan. I heard Ora say 'here comes Charlie Denham' and George answered 'shoot the dirty Ka Klux'."

"Then they came running from the doorway and opened fire with pistols and shotguns. Beside Galligan and Thomas the three Shelton boys and Bud Allison were with them. Willard, Dunning and Newbold were in the rear seat. The sheriff and his gang were acting like crazy men. They sent a hail of bullets at the car. Bud Allison jumped on the running board and hit me over the head with the butt of his pistol. I slumped down in the seat and then crouched on the floor."

"No shots were fired from my car. I had a gun in the pocket of the front door but I had no chance to get it."

Answering a question from the corner, Denham said Smith appeared four or five minutes after the shooting was over.

Alvin Townsend told the jury he was going home and when passing the Smith garage, he said, Ora Thomas and Bud Allison stopped his car, made him get out and stood him against the garage wall.

"I saw the big Shelton boy grab Dunning and hold him," he told the jury. "Ora Thomas had a gun pointed at Dunning and Ora shot Dunning in the back."

He said that "either Galligan or Thomas fired the first shots." In a conference tonight at Marion, Captain Harold M. Bigelow, commanding officer of the troops stationed here, made arrangements with Sheriff George Galligan whereby the automobile now being held at the John Smith garage in Herrin might be secured without danger of precipitating any further trouble.

Last Saturday Sheriff Galligan and several of his deputies went to the garage armed with a writ of replevin, issued by the state's attorney to get an automobile said to have been stolen and to have figured prominently in the attack on S. Glenn Young, Ku Klux Klan liquor raider and his wife, and the killing of Jack Skelcher, last May. As a result of the sheriff's action, the shooting occurred in which six men were killed and several injured.

Captain Bigelow said tonight that the car would be removed from the garage tomorrow and that he had made arrangements with Smith to deliver the car to anyone of Galligan's deputies that might call for it. Captain Bigelow has promised a guard of troops to be sure that no further trouble will arise.

During the conference the captain told Galligan that the appearance of either himself or his deputy Ora Thomas in Herrin would be a signal for undue excitement and advised them to stay away unless they had official business to perform. Sheriff Galligan promised that in case he had business in Herrin he would inform the military before leaving Marion.

COLLEGE OF MUSIC NOTES

The West Side Studio, as for the past two seasons, will be available for private lessons. West end students may register for lessons at either that studio or the main building of the College of Music. A large enrollment is anticipated as many from out of town are already coming in, so that early registration is advisable, especially for those wishing definite days and hours and a selection of teachers.

The Child Culture Musical Kindergarten, which was given at the West Side Studio last season, will be given at the College of Music, where enlarged facilities have been provided for them. Miss Grimsley and Miss Muleady, who have charge of this department, are expected in the city within the next few days.

Mrs. Forrest and daughter, Marguerite, are motoring through from Westerly, Rhode Island, and are expected in Jacksonville the latter part of the week. Mrs. Martin and Miss Larimore have already returned from Michigan and Miss Hay is expected soon.

Mrs. Alice Moncrieff of New York City, who comes to fill the place of Madam Colorado at the College of Music, is expected to arrive within a few days. Already she has a large number of registrations awaiting her. Mrs. Moncrieff has been engaged as soloist at the Central Christian church and will begin her duties there on Sunday, September 14. Miss Catherine Rose Larmer, the new piano teacher, also of New York City, is expected here within a few days and will live at Colonial Inn. She has recently given a recital before the Three Arts club in New York City.

THE PASSING OF SUMMER

(By Ida Scott Taylor)

Summer's just over they tell me, and sighing, Grieve that the glory of autumn is on,
Summer's just over, the roses are dying.
What shall we do when the roses are gone?
Roses and roses! rich crimson and white ones,
Blush roses, pink roses, golden and bright ones,
What shall we do when the roses are gone?

Summer's just over, the birds are thro' nesting,
Up in the maple-trees out on the lawn,
Summer's just over, and now we are queuing—
What shall we do when the birdlings are gone?
Red-breasted robins, and blue-jays and thrushes,
Out of each feathered throat melody gushes,
What shall we do when the birdlings are gone?

Summer's just over, the grain lately growing Gladdened our eyes at the noontide and dawn,
Wheat-field and corn-field and meadowland glowing,
What shall we do when the harvest-time's gone?
Millet-head, barley beard, how we shall miss them,
What shall we do when the harvest-time's gone?

Summer's just over, but what has it left us
Roses still fragrant for you and for me,
Say you, O friend, that its dying here's us, Rather foretell of its glories to

Roses are blooming, and robins are singing,
Down in our hearts in sweet ecstasy ringing,
Blooming and singing for you and for me.

Summer's just over! Now don't you believe it,
Never was summertime fairer than now,
If our hearts we but gladly receive it,
Still we may keep it forever, I trow;

Roses and robins and harvests are here,
Making life's summer last all thro the year,

BEFORE TWINS WERE BORN

Was Very Miserable. Felt Lots Better After Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Wyocena, Wis.—"I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound before my twins were born because my sister used it and recommended it to me. I was so miserable, I was in such misery. But after I began taking the second bottle I was feeling lots better. I took three bottles and a half before I was confined and finished the bottle while I was in bed. I got up feeling fine and have taken care of the twins alone ever since. I recommend the Vegetable Compound highly and will sing its praises in the future."

—Mrs. Ida Gernatz, Wyocena, Wis.

It is remarkable how many cases have been reported similar to this one. Many mothers are left in a weakened and run-down condition after childbirth, and for such mothers the care of the baby is well-nigh impossible. Not only is it hard for the mother, but the child itself will indirectly suffer. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is an excellent tonic for the mother both before and after childbirth. It is prepared from medicinal roots and herbs, and can be taken in safety by nursing mothers.

Borrow Money under the Federal Farm Loan Plan

FARMERS may obtain the many advantages of the Federal Farm Loan Act by placing their mortgage loans with the Illinois Midwest Joint Stock Land Bank, which operates under this plan.

Paying Off Mortgage Debt

Loans are made on farm land at 6 per cent interest for a period of 33 years. Through the payment of semi-annual installments the debt, both principal and interest, is gradually paid off. As compared with the "old farm mortgage plan," our system saves you interest and also eliminates the expense and worry of renewals.

Privilege of Repayment

Although the loan is for 33 years, the borrower has the privilege of paying off all or part of the principal after five years.

Loans Made Promptly

Farmers find it more satisfactory to transact their business with this bank, located in a small city of a farming community, rather than an institution in a large financial center. We understand farm conditions and problems and are able to give personal service to the farmer as well as to our agents who represent us. Applications are given immediate consideration.

My sore was on my left leg, was 4 1/2 inches by 2 1/2 inches wide—is all healed up beautiful now, and then too it was so soothing on such a raw sore. I can't say enough praise for the good it has done me. Very truly yours, Miss Kate Kull, Sigel, Ill."

With an attendance almost double of that of either of the two previous days, the Morgan County fair experienced Wednesday the most successful day it has had. Early in the morning, the crowd began coming in, until by time the races started, the grounds were filled to capacity. The full program was carried out as announced, and the amusement centers did a thriving business.

The early success of the enterprise has led the management to extend the time of the fair for one day, so that according to the present plan the program will continue through Saturday evening. Arrangements have been made with the J. K. Pearson shows and the Guy Baldwin performers to remain for the extra day. A racing program is also being made up for Saturday.

Several slight changes have been made in the program for today. The judging of shorthorn cattle will take place at nine o'clock instead of ten. The Baby Beef club judging will be at 10:30. The fireworks which had been announced for last night were postponed to this evening.

100 Babies Examined
At the "Better Babies" conference, 62 babies were examined and rated Wednesday, making a total of 106 for the two days. Today is the final day for babies. The few who missed their appointments on Tuesday or Wednesday, and any others who wish to have an opportunity today to have the examination made. The examining will be facilitated if the babies are brought to the tent as early in the day as possible.

Wednesday evening at the Farm Bureau headquarters, Farm Adviser George B. Kendall showed motion pictures entitled "Out of the Shadows," explaining the necessity of TB tests for cattle. Mr. Kendall showed these pictures outdoors to a large audience, and accompanied them by a brief lecture on the subject of cattle testing.

MARRIED WOMAN DECLARED ELIGIBLE IN PAGEANT

Atlantic City, N. J., Sept. 3.—Officials of the 1924 beauty pageant, denied tonight that "Miss Boston" who is Mrs. Michael Prendergast, mother of a seven months old child would be barred from competing for prizes because she was married altho the rules this year make married women ineligible. It is said the Boston American, sponsor for "Miss Boston" was never notified of the ineligibility of married women.

CONVENTION CALLED TO NOMINATE JUDGE

Freeport, Ill., Sept. 3.—A call was issued today for a Republican judicial convention for the fifteenth circuit comprising the counties of Stephenson, Jo Daviess, Carroll, Ogle and Lee to be held here Sept. 25 to nominate a candidate for judge of the circuit court to succeed Oscar Herd, recently elected to the state supreme court bench.

There are several candidates for the place.

DOUBLE PROGRAM of fireworks and free acts to-night at county fair grounds.

DEMPSEY'S ENGAGEMENT TO MISS TAYLOR DENIED

Atlantic City, Sept. 3.—Jack Dempsey at the Traymore tonight denied he was engaged to Miss Estelle Taylor. The report was started, he said, thru a feature story written by a girl reporter in Philadelphia "who twisted things around a bit."

Menus for a Family

Breakfast—Orange juice, oatmeal with raisins, top milk, codfish balls, milk toast, cocoa, coffee.

Luncheon—Scrambled egg on toast, bread and butter, spinach, plain cookies, milk tea.

Dinner—Beef stew, cauliflower, orange salad, peach blancmange, whole wheat bread, butter, milk and coffee.

Of course the tea and coffee mentioned in these menus are a concession to the grown-ups. Every boy and girl who is brought up with the idea well fixed in mind that tea and coffee have no place in the diet until "years of discretion" are reached, will be less prone to "nerves" later in life.

Try serving orange juice about half an hour before breakfast to the four-year-old member of the family.

Run the raisins through the food chopper before adding them to the cereal.

The beef stew contains potatoes and carrots. Mince the meat for the youngest and always mash his vegetables well for him. No four-year-old child can be trusted to thoroughly masticate his food.

Facts About Child-birth

It has been proven conclusively that much of the suffering, pain and dread experienced during expectancy, as well as at child-birth is entirely unnecessary. An eminent physician, Dr. J. H. Holmes, expert in this science, first produced the great remedy "Mother's Friend," which aids the muscles and tissues to expand more easily, during the constant readjustment, month after month, right up to the climax of child-birth.

"Mother's Friend" is applied externally. Three generations of expectant mothers have used it. "Pains disappeared in two days after using 'Mother's Friend,'" writes a user. "I owe my life to 'Mother's Friend,'" declared another. Use "Mother's Friend" as our mothers and grandmothers did. Start today, and experience the wonderful comfort it will give you.

Billy Evans SAYS

Youth must be served, is an old sport adage of much truth, but it doesn't go, out in the great open spaces.

Veteran pitchers, former big league stars, are making a pennant contender out of Seattle in the Pacific Coast League.

"Wheeler" DeL, late of Brooklyn; Jim Bagby, who last toiled with Pittsburgh and previous to that starred for Cleveland and Veau Gregg, long regarded as a brouh, are keeping Seattle in the running.

Perhaps it is the climate. Ten years ago Gregg was the big noise at Cleveland, a second Rube Waddell in ability, also possessing a few of the late Rube Waddell's eccentricities.

Gregg at 40, after practically having retired from the game because of a lame arm, is doing one of baseball's greatest comebacks. He is the pitching sensation of the coast league.

Only the other day the New York Yankees were reported to have offered two players and a big sum for Gregg, provided immediate delivery could be given. The offer was turned down.

In 1920 Jim Bagby won 31 games for Cleveland. The Indians won the pennant that year. Bagby played a leading role.

Dell for seven years has been doing minor league service, regarded through as a big leaguer. Yet these two veterans labeled as the majors, are making baseball history on the coast.

In baseball, a wise old head often triumphs over the brawn of youth. Bagby, 9, and Gregg are outstanding examples of such a truth.

Pitching experience is playing a big part in their present success. Their pitching arms lack much of the fire of big league days.

The uncertainty of baseball makes it unwise to bank too strongly on any one player, no matter how big a star he may be. This is particularly true of the pitching end of the game. The twisters fail to run true to form more often than any other player in the game.

If Morrison of Pittsburgh, conceded to be the best curve ball pitcher in the National League was delivering in 1923 form, the Pirates would be pressing New York much harder.

Morrison has the same stuff, pitches in the same way, but is unable to win consistently. There is no logical explanation that can be offered for his showing, he simply isn't running true to form.

League of Cincinnati, Ohio of Cleveland and Rutherford of Brooklyn are just a few other star pitchers who are not delivering up to expectations.

"When a pitcher is having a big year he is getting his share of the breaks," is the way I once heard Walter Johnson sum it up.

"Timely hitting by his teammates, a tight defense, that makes it hard for the opposition to score and a dash of pure luck are just a few of the breaks a winning pitcher must get," added Johnson. Pitching is one of the most uncertain features of the game, incidentally the most important.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 3.—Kaufmann held Cincinnati to six scattered hits today and Chicago won easily, 6 to 0. Sheehan and May were both batted out of the box but Dibat, the Cuban recruit stopped the hitting in the last three innings.

FIRPO-WILLS MATCH BELIEVED CERTAIN

NEW YORK, Sept. 3.—Having shifted from Saratoga Springs to New York the scene of preparations for his 12 round battle with Harry Wills at Boyles' Thirty Acres on September 11, Luis Angel Firpo today re-arranged his fighting schedule while Tex Rickard took steps to thwart any attempts to block the efforts for the deportation of the Argentine heavyweight.

"I anticipate no actual interference with the match, despite proceedings now before the department of labor," said Rickard, referring to the efforts of William S. Chase to have Firpo deported.

"These charges against Firpo are absurd," added the promoter. "But I am prepared to fight any action designed to prevent the match. I have no reason now to believe any interference will actually develop. I am going right ahead with plans for the contest."

Rickard seemed relieved when informed that in department of labor circles it was not felt that sufficient time remained to accomplish deportation proceedings against Firpo before the fight.

Firpo, meanwhile, apparently unperturbed by the sudden turn of events moved his paraphernalia to Madison Square Garden where this afternoon he was the center of attraction for several hundred onlookers.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Loving and son, Louis of Hull, Ill., were among the callers in the city yesterday. Mr. and Mrs. Loving have been visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Carpenter of the Buckhorn neighborhood.

No Serious Results In Spill At Races

Before a grandstand crowded almost to its capacity the Wednesday afternoon race card of the Morgan county fair was run off satisfactorily. With many thrilling finishes, the only thing to mar a perfect afternoon being a bad spill in the fourth heat of the 2:25 pace, three horses and drivers toppling over in one pile, while the fourth horse was turned into the fence to miss the spill, causing the sulky to be broken.

The spill came on the back stretch in the first lap of the mile when Red Dillon, who was in the lead closely pursued by the others, went into a break, and collided with the fence; Tommie D., driven by Nate Purvins was so close that there was no chance of missing the head horse, tangled with Red Dillon, and Mabel Leen, driven by George Dennis, following hit the pileup, the mare going down, and Dennis being thrown about 12 feet in among the horses and carts and knocked unconscious.

To avoid the wreck, Driver Crahn who was up behind Frances Dillon, pulled his horse into the fence, wrecking one wheel of his sulky. Purvins recovered himself, righted his sulky and finished the race by himself, the other drivers failing to complete the heat. Dennis was taken to the hospital while yet unconscious and it was first reported that the injury was fatal but after he regained consciousness it was found that aside from numerous cuts about the face, both legs being more or less badly brised, his condition was not to be considered serious. Mabel Leen was badly cut and bruised and may not be able to start in any other races this season. The other drivers and horses escaped with only minor injuries, a miraculous thing considering the thorough mixup.

After Mr. Dennis regained consciousness he was unable to remember anything concerning the accident. He was brought back to the fair grounds, in company with his wife, in the back seat of an auto, and appeared before a crowd highly pleased at his appearance after the reports of a fatal injury. At the suggestion of J. L. Henry the crowd showed that a hearty still exists in some human breasts, by contributing to him in his trouble the sum of $116.20, collected in small amounts from among the spectators. Mr. Dennis has always been greatly admired by the local race goers, on account of the fact that he is always willing to start in a race whenever asked to help fill in the field, even though he was sure he had no chance of finishing in the money.

The Races
The 2:30 trot was the first race of the afternoon called and five horses appeared for the start of the first heat. They got away on the seventh time down, Windfield Scott, Angeline Patch and The Northern Light fighting it out during the first lap and far into the second, Angeline Patch going into the lead in the home stretch and winning by a head. In the second heat they got away on the third trial to a scattered start with Angeline Patch taking the lead and holding it up to the home stretch in the first lap when Windfield Scott drew away and won with Angeline Patch close for second place. They got away the second time down in the third heat to a scattered start, Northern Light leading in the first lap, closely pushed by Windfield Scott and Jean Southern; on the last turn of the second lap Windfield Scott took the lead and won the heat with Jean Southern in second place. The fourth and final heat saw them get away the fourth trial and the field remained well bunched during the first lap with Angeline Patch leading past the wire at the beginning of the second lap, and holding the lead until entering the first turn when Windfield Scott breezed out ahead and held it, winning the heat and race.

2:25 Pace
The second race brought out four horses and they were away on their second trial with Mabel Leen and Tommy D. racing it out in the first lap, but by the time Red Dillon was ready to challenge in the second round the leaders were too much raced out to accept the challenge and Red Dillon won the heat with Frances Dillon second. In the second heat they again scored the second time down and Frances Dillon led all the way with the field well bunched. Red Dillon and Tommy D. furnishing the closest competition, Red Dillon taking second at the wire. In the third heat Frances Dillon again took the lead but Tommy D. challenged all the way and the finish saw a real horse race, Tommy D. finishing a very close second. The fourth heat saw them off on the second trial, Red Dillon leading into the back stretch in the first lap, when the disastrous spill occurred.

Inasmuch as Mabel Leen had not qualified for a come-back, and was further unable to appear for another heat, the other drivers agreed to split the money on the basis of the preceding heats, Frances Dillon taking the race with Red Dillon second, Tommy D. third, and Mabel Leen in fourth place.

Hal Onward Makes New World Record

Between the final heats of the harness races, Hal Onward, the Guideless Wonder, owned by Al. Elaw of Griggsville, appeared on the track in an effort to lower his own record of 2:09 and that wonderful horse succeeded in doing what he intended doing by pacing the mile in 2:08 3-4, establishing what is claimed a world's record for a guideless horse. His performance, added to his beauty, and his proud appearance before a crowd, brought to him thunderous applause when he returned and paraded slowly before the grandstand ungladly, knowingly stopping after passing, and waiting for his handler to lead him back to his stable.

Pony Races
Both the small and large ponies went the half-mile route yesterday, the "babies" covering the distance in the time of 63 seconds, a remarkable record considering both the sizes of the ponies and their riders. In this race young Greenleaf won, with McCurley second and Reid third.

The race for the larger ponies was won by Norton, second, James Bell and third, Roland in 58 seconds.

4 1/2 Furlong Dash

The four and one half furlong dash saw four runners take the track and the field got away after about four starts, all of them making it a real race from start to finish. Trixy S., an added starter won the race in a hard home-stretch finish. Home Run who took first Tuesday placing second, the time being 60 seconds.

DARIO RESTA, FAMOUS AUTO RACER, KILLED

BROOKLANDS, Sept. 2. (AP)—The speed king Dario Resta, hero of countless automobile victories and hairbreadth escapes during his twenty years' career as a racer, was killed today on the Brooklands track which he recently had described as the "easiest track in the world to race on."

Resta driving his 160 horse power Grand Prix Sunbeam with the intention of breaking the 50 kilometer record, made two laps when suddenly it skidded about three hundred yards, turned sideways, dashed over a bank and crashed into an iron fence nose divided into the ground on the far side of the fence righted itself and burst into flames.

Resta was thrown out violently and his head struck either a wood fence support or some part of the car for he was almost decapitated. His body was recovered a few yards from the car.

William Perkins, Resta's mechanic, was thrown clear however, and was taken to a hospital. When the accident occurred, it was estimated the car was going at a speed of 122 miles an hour. No one could explain the cause of the accident.

BOSTON, Sept. 3.—Nehf held Boston to two hits, both in the first inning of today's game with the Giants and the New York club won 4 to 1. The work of Pitcher Graham of the Braves recalled from Worcester, was good but scratch hits figured largely in three of New York's runs.

Market Report

By The Associated Press

WHEAT RALLIES ON REPORT OF EXPORTS

CHICAGO, Sept. 3.—Wheat rallied sharply today on reports of heavy export business with France, Germany and Italy. Offerings which were readily absorbed by strong commission houses and seaboard interests who were removing hedges were largely responsible for the upturn. Wheat closed 1c to 1 1/2c higher, with September $1.24 1/2 to $1.24 3/4 and December $1.29 1/2 to $1.29 3/4. Corn advanced 1c to 1 1/4c; oats were unchanged to 1c up and provisions 7 1/2 to 17 1/2c lower.

Reports of more favorable weather for harvesting in Canada where the new crop already is underway and an easier tone in Liverpool cables gave wheat a downward slant at the start and resulted in some persistent selling. However, report of much damage to Argentina's new wheat crop due to the continued drought and aggressive buying here by exporters, changed the trend of the market and prices shot upward, all deliveries showing substantial gain at the finish. Estimates on export business today were more than 1,000,000 bushels in all positions, while yesterday's sales were said to be as much as 5,000,000 bushels. Corn rallied sharply on commission house buying. Strength in wheat and cool weather over the corn belt being the bullish influence.

Short covering improved investment buying and reports of some frost damage in the Canadian northwest carried oats higher after a weak start.

Weakness of hog values affected provisions.

Y. M. C. A. HOLDS SESSION YESTERDAY

Work of Summer Is Outlined and Building Plans Continue

The Y Board met at noon yesterday to consider definite plans for the work of the new building in Jacksonville.

Report was given by Arthur Twest, general secretary, outlining the things done this summer. He reported that five boys had been at Camp Seymour for one period, Lee Baldwin for the next and H. H. Hembrough for the Y training period. The tent at the chautauqua was maintained and served to get acquainted with the boys and young men.

G. L. Goodwin of the Finance Service Bureau of Chicago was present and showed in a clear way what other cities were doing and the methods used there. "We are having more calls for campaigns than we can meet," he said and showed what cities of similar size are doing now.

H. J. Rodgers was authorized to appoint three committees to commence work at once. These were a building study committee to determine the approximate size and cost of a building needed here, the finance study committee to work on the securing of the money for the building, and the activities committee to work on the activities of the Y during the next year. It is planned to invite the men of Jacksonville to join the Y and help work for the new building in that way. A good live program is planned for both men and boys for the next year and the committees will meet in the near future to outline their work.

I. C. ALUMNUS MAKES COLLEGE BENEFICIARY

Former Illinois College Student Names Beneficiary Under Adjusted Compensation Act

An alumnus of Illinois college who is an ex-service man has decided to make the college his beneficiary under the adjusted compensation act. President Rammekamp recently received from this alumnus the following letter:

"July 31, 1924.
"Dear Doctor Rammekamp:
"I have decided to name Illinois college as the beneficiary under the adjusted compensation act insurance policy to be issued on account of my service in the army.

"While I realize that immediate help is what the college can best use right now, I feel that even this form of help will eventually do some good, and I am glad of an opportunity to provide for some quasi-tangible expression of what I'd like to do for the college if I were able. When the college, as beneficiary, finally gets the proceeds of this policy, I should like for the funds to become a part of the scholarship endowment.

"I sincerely hope that other ex-service men will see their way clear to do this same thing. It seems to me that any who might be opposed to the bonus on the grounds that it commercializes patriotic service, I believe I've heard that expression, might find some satisfaction in seeing the funds given for such service go into a perpetual endowment fund which will increase, forever, whatever service they performed during the war.

"With very best wishes, I am
"Very truly yours,

The college authorities greatly appreciate the generous interest of this young alumnus in his alma mater and hope that his action may suggest similar action to other alumni and former students.
